

- I feel that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.
- Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved my time at home.
- The Indiana's law has been very effective (e.g., "I used to receive 10-14 calls per day, now I only receive 1-2").
- My time at home is very precious and I really value it. I do not appreciate having others put undo guilt and pressure on me to submit to their selling techniques.